

Recharge wells are wells that are designed to pump water underground. A total of 60 recharge wells will be used to pump water that is taken out of the Little Arkansas River into the Equus Beds aquifer.

